

DISGAEA 2: DARK HERO DAYS SHIPS TO THE RETAILERS NATION WIDE TODAY!

Santa Ana, Calif. (September 08, 2009) – NIS America, Inc. announced today that Disgaea 2: Dark Hero Days, the sequel to the ever popular strategy role-playing game, has shipped to the retailers nation wide.

The PSP version adds all new story chapters with a new main character, Axel, adding even more replay value to the already feature-packed title. With new characters, skills, items, and battle system, Disgaea 2: Dark Hero Days is ready to please even the most hardcore SRPG enthusiasts.

About Disgaea 2: Dark Hero Days

In the peaceful world of Veldime, humans rarely encountered monsters. That was until Overlord Zenon cursed the land and all who reside within. With the curse in place, the humans became monsters and ravaged the world. It is up to Adell, the last remaining human, to oppose Overlord Zenon's tyranny and restore peace and harmony to Veldime.

In Disgaea 2, players will take on the role of a young fighter named Adell and travel the Netherworld to defeat the evil overlord Zenon. Battles will take place on a 3D grid-based field. During combat, players will take turns with the enemy to move and attack.

Key Features

1. All new story chapters, starring Axel
2. New Battle Features from Disgaea 3: Magichange and Toss and Pass.
3. All new characters, items, and skills
